Job description

In this role, you will play a crucial role to achieve the corporate business goals in a rapidly changing healthcare industry. You will interact with not only the International Sales and Marketing team, but also the HQ and regional offices and support them with business planning for the common goal. You will have a dual responsibility:

- 1) Ensure full alignment of business goals among HQ, the International Sales and Marketing (ISM-HQ) and regional offices
 - 2) Create a smooth process for multiple ISM's key projects to ensure they are finalized within the set time frames, by communicating with cross-departmental key stakeholders and supporting in resolving encountered challenges
- Consolidate and summarize the regional business plans and identify alignment gaps with the centralized strategy
 - Ensure that regional business plans are aligned with stakeholders and in line with the overall business plan by flagging issues to the management
 - Support and monitor the process of assigned key projects, manage smaller projects that derive from the annual business plan, and summarize and monitor project status
 - Prepare the agenda and facilitate meetings with regional entities (including oversea subsidiaries), and make minutes.
 - Provide ad hoc operational support to Corporate Planning Department

Job requirements

In order to qualify for this versatile and challenging position, required are at least the following criteria:

- University degree in the field of Economics, Business Administration or similar
- 2 to 4 years' experience in a similar role, supporting the business planning process in international companies
- Knowledge of accounting and finance is an advantage
- Excellent Excel and Power Point capabilities
- Strong communication skills especially in an international setting
- Fluent in English and Japanese, both written and spoken, is a must

Are you a Japanese speaker and looking for an opportunity to add value to a consumer healthcare company and help them with their mission to improve the lives of millions of patients? Do you have experience coordinating key stakeholders for strategic projects and supporting the management with business strategy and planning? Do you have excellent communication skills to ensure smooth implementation of cross departmental projects? Are you up for this challenge?
